

What does camp mean to you in 500 words or less. We know that may sound like a challenge, “how do you describe camp in 500 words” but the NYC Board would really like to know. How do you combine memories of campfires, midnight hikes, bible classes, silly nights in your cabin, life long friendships, a lifelong commitment made to God or times of service to others as a staff member? We don’t know how, but we would like you all to give it a shot.

The Grand Opening of the dining hall is scheduled for May 1, 2010 at NYC. We would like to, on that day, give a One Week Session Scholarship to the winner of the “What does camp mean to you” essay contest. This contest is open to all ages of campers and needs to be received by April 15, 2009. Type it or write it (get help writing if you need it) then e-mail it essay@nebraskayouthcamp.com or mail it to NYC Essay 63 Sweetwater Ave Kearney Ne 68847 Be creative, take a trip down memory lane and let us know what is special about camp to you.
